

SUED FOR A LIFE.

James Barry Sues the Rock Island Railroad Company—General Court News.

James Barry, administrator of the estate of John Barry, has begun suit in the Circuit Court to recover $5,000 damages from the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway company, holding the company responsible for the death of John Barry, who was thrown under a train of cars at Blue Island and sustained fatal injuries. O'Connor, Duncan & Eckels and Moloney are solicitors for complainant.

A special term of the Circuit Court will be held on the 26th day of May in pursuance of the following order of said court:

"The court orders that a special term of this court be held on May 26, 1890, for transaction of business as follows:

Hearing of chancery causes, trial of law causes by the court wherein a jury has been or may hereafter be waived; the settlement of pleadings and issues in law and chancery causes, entering of judgments by confession and upon defaults."

Peter Fotheringham, administrator of the estate of David Fotheringham, commenced a partition suit in the Circuit Court yesterday to have the dower of widow set aside. Fotheringham died January 27th last, leaving personal property worth $1,395 and real estate worth $25,000, to be divided between a wife and two children. The widow has been paid $1,385, and Allan Wylie was given a judgment for $6,911.60, which yet remains unsatisfied. R. D. MacDonald represents complainant.

The following tax judgments were rendered: Henry Jacob, $15.95; Geo. W. Ravens, conservator of John Selzer estate, $101.73; Michael Lyons, $7.38; Herbert Smith, $100; Baker & Daly, $24.91; W. E. Marsh, $10.29; Samuel Driefuss, $18.27; E. M. Drew, $18.64; George H. West, Jr., $1.90; John Batchelder, $7.96; James Watson, $7.04; Delahanty & Foley, $18.27.

Benjamin Stokes, of Warren county, Ohio, recently recovered a judgment for $1,069.67 from Wm. B. Kenwick. The judgment was never satisfied, and yesterday Stokes commenced a suit for attachment in aid. A writ was issued and the sheriff levied on real estate in township 31, range 3. B. F. Lincoln and W. W. Stokes represent complainant.

Wilhelmina Young, a child 9 years old, has been adopted by John W. Anondale and wife, of Oglesby. Its mother is dead and the father is unable to take care of the little one.

Judge Blanchard decided the Williams-Fielding case yesterday, giving a verdict for defendants. Walter Reeves moved for a new trial and it will be argued at some convenient time.

Donahue and Henneberry have commenced suit in assumpsit to recover $500 damages from L. W. Applegate. The case of the Town of Dimmick v. The Highway Commissioners has been set for hearing on May 26.

C. M. Shaw v. Eugene Perrot et al. is the title of an appeal case started yesterday. Demand, $19.75.

Mrs. Hirsch was given a divorce from August Hirsch.

Criminal Matters.

The causes on the criminal calendar of the County Court will be called for trial Monday, May 12. Judge Snyder will preside. The following People's causes will be heard: People v. Joseph Bushko, Otto Borchsenius, Jacob Knowalski, Al. Ackerman, Felt & Nertney, Nels Anderson.

County Court.

Judge Snyder gave J. Hoxie a judgment for $483.35 against Wm. Harth. Moloney & Stead have commenced suit against Egbert Kilmer, conservator of John Kilmer, a distracted person, to recover $500 fees for professional services rendered in trying several law suits.

The La Salle Brewing Company has commenced a suit to recover $500 damages from Anna and Bronislaus Physchka. O'Connor, Duncan and Eckels represent complainant.

Judge Snyder has sustained the motion for a new trial in the case of Rose v. The City of Ottawa. Rose recently got a judgment against the city for $20.22. It will be remembered that he printed a 200-line editorial on the health of the city and charged up 10 cents per line for same. Rose may think it all right to sell his editorial space, but Judge Snyder holds the law to be that he did what was wrong and therefore should not get a judgment.

Probate Court.

Appraisement bill and inventory in Joseph Dillie estate was filed and approved.

In the estate of Thomas W. Baird an order vacating judgment given claimant on Feb. 17 be vacated.
